To conduct the election of the Vice President, Cantonment Board, Rawalpindi, as required under Rule 88 of the Cantonments Local Government Election Rules, 2015 in the manner as prescribed in Rule 89 ibid, which is reproduced hereunder for convenience / ready reference :-

“Manner of election:-

(1) Any member of the Board including those elected to special interest seats present at the meeting may propose by name any other elected member for office of Vice-President and if another elected member seconds the proposal, the person proposed shall be deemed to be a candidate:

Provide that if none of the elected members present proposes the name of another elected member, any elected member may propose his own name and thereupon he shall be deemed to be a candidate:

Provided further that if no proposal is seconded, the elected member proposed shall be deemed to be a candidate.

(2) A candidate may withdraw his candidature before the President proceeds to declare the result or to take the poll, as the case may be, and thereupon such person shall cease to be a candidate.

(3) If there is only one candidate, the President shall forthwith declare such candidate to be elected as the Vice-President.

(4) If there be more than one candidate, the President shall hand over to each elected member present, a voting paper in Form-XX in which the name of candidates who have been duly admitted shall be entered and shall ask each elected member to so record his vote that no other person can see the recording by placing a cross-mark in the space provided for the purpose in the voting paper opposite the name of the candidate for whom the member intends to vote. If an member can not read or write, he may request the President to assist him in the marking of the voting paper.

(5) Before handing over a voting paper under sub-rule (4), the President shall sign on its reverse to ensure the genuineness of the voting paper.

(6) The voting paper shall be invalid, if :-

- a) It does not bear on its reverse the signature of the President as required under sub-rule (5);*
- b) The cross marks are placed opposite name of more than one candidate'*

c) The cross mark is so placed as to render it doubtful for which candidate the vote has been recorded.

(7) Each member after placing the cross-mark on the voting paper shall fold the same and hand over it over to the President.

(8) As soon as all the voting papers have been delivered to the President, he shall in the following order order;-

- a) reject any voting paper which is invalid under sub-rule (6);
- b) read out the names of candidates against whom the cross-mark has been validly made;
- c) count the votes, and
- d) declare the candidate for whom the largest number of votes has been recorded to be elected as Vice-President: Provided that in case of an equality of votes, the President shall draw lots in such manner as he may deem fit and the candidate in whose favour the lot is drawn shall be deemed to be elected as Vice-President and the President shall so declare”.
